

Western District of Missouri
Historical Society

In the fall and winter of 2013, the Historical Society teamed up with the Truman Library Institute and the Kansas City Public Library to co-sponsor a series of lectures for lawyers and the public on significant Supreme Court decisions that impacted modern American life. Presentations, by presenters from the University of Kansas, featured Mapp v. Ohio, Roe v. Wade and Gibbons v. Ogden. Scheduling is underway for two fall 2014 programs.

As of June 30, 2014, the Historical Society maintained a balance of $4,376.68 in its account.
