

South Dakota Federal Courts Historical Society
October 3, 2008

The South Dakota Federal Courts Historical Society completed the oral history of all three of our senior district court judges last year. We have had no further activity this year. Because Judge Charles Kornmann recently took senior status, his oral history will be our next project.

During this entire year, we had a cash balance of zero in the Historical Society account.

Karen Schreier
Don Kundsén