Report

To Joan Voelker
From E. Richard Webber
August 5, 2008

The Eastern District Branch of the Eighth Circuit Historical Society is preparing a book on the HISTORY OF THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF MISSOURI for publication. A draft of five chapters has been received for review from the author, Burton Boxerman. Funding is provided by the Federal Trust Committee.

Since our last report, oral histories have been taped and are being edited for Senior Judge Edward L. Filippine and John F. Nangle. Plans are being made to complete oral histories for Judges Donald Stohr, William Webster, and Stephen N. Limbaugh. Special projects to record events in the lives of deceased Judges Clyde Cahill and George Gunn will be addressed after the oral histories are completed. Funding is provided by the Federal Trust Committee.

Filming of authors who briefed the seventeen most significant cases in the Eastern District of Missouri will soon begin. These will be prepared using existing equipment in the Clerk's office.

Respectfully submitted,

E. Richard Webber
